

Chief Executive Officer

School Board's Co-operative Inc.

The School Boards' Co-operative Inc. is a member-owned, not-for-profit co-operative that helps Ontario School Boards improve efficiencies, decrease costs, and mitigate impacts of absenteeism through expert attendance support, health and safety, and workers' compensation consulting services. With this mandate in mind, SBCI is seeking its next Chief Executive Officer to lead a passionate and knowledgeable team of skilled professionals to remain abreast of all relevant learning and development opportunities that will allow for meaningful and valuable consultative services.

Reporting to and working in collaboration with the Board of Directors, the Chief Executive Officer is focused on designing and managing programs to control risk while providing inspirational leadership and direction to over 47 staff members in 8 departments to ensure SBCI can reach its short- and long-term goals. Strategic in both thought and action, the CEO will be responsible for formulating a comprehensive marketing, branding, and development strategy that will ensure consistency and enhance revenue streams from all clients. Moreover, the CEO will strengthen infrastructure, organizational capacity, and overall business operations while ensuring that the delivery of high-quality services and the financial status of SBCI remain a priority.

As an ideal candidate, you are a highly analytical and strategic visionary who is skilled at building strong relationships and communicating with diverse audiences. You are a natural leader with a proven track record in guiding successful teams toward a strategic vision through achievable goals. Given your strategic thinking and focus on continuous improvement, you are seen as a catalyst for growth, aligning strong program development with SBCI's overall success. Your ability to engage partners and elevate organizational branding make you the ideal candidate to lead SBCI. You are a highly accountable and inspiring leader who energizes the teams you work with to foster a culture of inclusivity and excellence in all aspects of your work. SBCI will benefit from your sound judgment, significant leadership experience, and overall outlook on organizational success.

If you are interested in this unique, exciting, and critically important leadership opportunity, please submit your application and related materials here: <https://boyden.thriveapp.ly/job/2348>.
